

Changed dates... diary clashes... and now a double-booking at the venue... So we've decided to take a rain-check on the final Oracle forum dates for 2007.

To keep you munching on the marketing issues that matter, we'll be putting together some thoughts on the big strategic issues facing senior marketers in the professions next year, including predictions from the expert speakers we've heard from during 2007. That will be ready for you to digest in December – maybe not as tasty as Harts or Hotel du Vin, but a healthy option!

If you would like to add your thoughts to the bulletin, please email a couple of paragraphs about where you think we'll be focusing our attention next year by Thursday 6th December.
