

Nottingham – Friday 27th April 2007 - Harts Restaurant - 12.00 to 2.00pm

Leading the discussion:

Sarah Warnsby, Director of Marketing and Business Development, Browne Jacobson

Award-winning Sarah joined Browne Jacobson LLP in 2004 from Boots. She specialises in strategy development, business and marketing planning, brand development, internal communications and change management.

Sarah first began her career in accountancy working for Touche Ross and PriceWaterhouseCoopers, moving over into marketing whilst working for Boots where she gained experience in change management, strategic marketing and marketing communications roles before moving to Browne Jacobson.

Glenn Harris, Executive Director (Corporate Services), East Midlands Development Agency

Glenn Harris joined emda in May 2005. A chartered management accountant, his responsibilities include managing the finance, performance management and HR functions within emda.

Glenn's background is with the former NHS Supplies Authority where he was Head of Finance for the Wholesaling Division and subsequently Director of Finance and Performance with the newly formed NHS Logistics Authority.

Other Participants:

- Phil Onions, Head of Business Development, BDO Stoy Hayward
- Mat Slade, Partner, Head of Business Development, Fidler & Pepper
- Andy Hodges, Chief Executive, Fraser Brown
- Stephen Pearson, Partner specialising in public sector, Freeth Cartwright
- Carley Ferguson, Marketing Manager, Harvey Ingram
- Richard Georgeson, Head of Business Development, Ringrose Law Group
- June Smallwood Rose, Head of Business Development, Shoosmiths
- Hilary Campton, Marketing Director, Berryman
- Jonathan Younger, Marketing Director, Hewitsons
- Jamie Gordon, Partner, Geldards

Organisers:

- Maggie Taylor, Principal, Prima PR & Marketing
- Mandi Short, Partner, The Progressive Business Group